

A Strong Drive to Help

The RHF's mission is to care for and honor our reining community.

The Reining Horse Foundation (RHF) is NRHA's philanthropic arm. Executing its mission and focusing on best practices keep the Board of Directors busy, yet it's important to continuously share what the Foundation is and what it does.

The RHF is a charitable organization established 21 years ago. It raises money in various ways to fund core programs, including the Dale Wilkinson Memorial Crisis Fund, scholarships and more. The Crisis Fund awards grants to NRHA members in need of financial assistance for things such as accidents, disasters and major illnesses. The RHF steps in to help bridge financial gaps that occur during hardships.

NRHyA leadership development activities are also funded through the RHF — a structure that is beneficial to donors. Scholarship programs financially assist youth reiners through a variety of opportunities.

The RHF also helps perpetuate the sport's history through the NRHA Hall of Fame.

There are several ways to support these programs. The Reiners Club provides levels of recognition for donors making unrestricted contributions. The Show Entry Donation program gives exhibitors at participating shows the choice to donate $10 upon entry.

Professionals voluntarily donate when purchasing their NRHA Professional membership, and dozens donate their time for the NRHyA Buy-A-Pro Auction.

Donors and buyers generously provide during the annual NRHyA Stallion Auction, and many of you support the largest annual RHF fundraiser, Sliders' Night Out presented by Toyon Ranch. Individuals, businesses and affiliates find many other creative ways to contribute, as well.

The Board of Directors acts through four committees. The Governance Committee monitors the bylaws and vets potential new board members, steering the RHF in best practices. The Development Committee oversees fundraising programs and sparks new means. The Crisis Fund Review Committee reviews applications to make recommendations for support. The Scholarship Committee helps guide these programs to uplift the next generation of reiners.

The RHF is currently led by an 18-member volunteer board of women and men who are owners, breeders, exhibitors, trainers and judges from multiple states and countries. We each have a passion for reining and a strong drive to help reining community members. We hope you have found — or will find — your place with the RHF.
